

【Neverland】

Flying away to the land of the free
This world of lies is drowning me
When you're here there is nothing to fear
Reach out for the sky
Breakin' these chains, and stretch out my wings
It's time to take flight!

Fairytale fantasies are now becoming a reality
There's no borders here is this what it's like to be free
Maybe this is where all our dreams come true
No oppressor's here to prey upon us

Clouds of Cotton candy are the only things around us
There's no misery, pain or suffering to see
Now it's time to grant all our wishes here
When you are here you never grow old

Never grow old!

Can't hold us down
we've tasted freedom now
Never take us no one can make us
Live in a cage/live trapped in a cage

Flying away!

Soaring away in the realm of my dreams
My life before a distant memory
When I am here I have nothing to fear
Come join me and FLY

And we're going on and on

No more rules no more walls
There is nothing that can contain us
Feel the wind through your hair
Warm sun rays everywhere
Everyone spread out your wings and soar

On and on
All the new horizons waiting for me out there
And when you look up to the heavens I'll be soaring through the sky
